

VRS is wonderful to use for the deaf community and effective communication. We want to see it become an important real-time communication service. The VRS is for us closer to functional equivalency than other telecommunications services. Please adopt the appropriate rate and regulatory requirements to ensure the continued development of technology and multi-vendoring of VRS.